

Church History Survey

with Dr Don Hardgrave

Part of the Diploma of Christian Ministry and Theology (30773QLD)

This course tackles issues we face today and looks at how Christians have addressed them in the past
Intensely practical, the sovereignty of God emerges again and again to encourage us

The principles which guided them, mean we can learn to make history ourselves, today

Cleveland Baptist Church

240 Bloomfield Street Cleveland (07) 3286 2724

See over for dates and times

$231 receive credit towards a nationally recognised qualification
$10 per night (or $70 for whole course) not for credit
(or a donation)

Contact the church office to register

Contact CALAM Training to enrol for credit
(07) 4723 8522 or admin@calam.edu.au
www.calam.edu.au

“It greatly helped me in sharing my faith”

Former student from Tully Baptist

Shaping Tomorrow—Learning From Yesterday

Session 1: Sunday Morning 13th Feb (Wk 1)

Getting ready for the Second Coming—What can we learn from the first one?

Session 2: Sunday Evening 13th Feb (Wks 2&3)

How to handle pressures on the church, including those from other religions

Session 3: Thursday Evening 17th Feb (Wk 4)

How to be more like Jesus. Is there a better way than the monastery?

Session 4: Thursday Evening 24th Feb (Wk 5, 6a&b)

When the church “makes friends” with the government—lessons for today

Session 5: Thursday Evening 3rd Mar (Wks 6c-7)

The Reformation. How to be sure we’re going to heaven (Luther/Calvin)

Session 6: Thursday Evening 10th Mar (Wk 8)

The foundations of the modern world (1530-1789)
—secular values vs scripture

Session 7: Thursday Evening 17th Mar (Wk 9)

The great revival of the 18th century, holiness and how to have small groups that really work

Session 8: Thursday Evening 24th Mar (Wk 10)

Revivals, Australian Christianity & New currents of thought (19th century)

Session 9: Thursday Evening 31st Mar (Wk 11)

Revivals (cont) & New currents of thought (20th century)

Session 10: Tuesday Evening 5th Apr (Wk 12)

Review and looking toward the future. Where will we be in 10 years time?

On Sunday 13th February, the sessions are part of the morning and evening worship. From 17th February, the Thursday evenings will begin with film at 7.00pm and follow with the class at about 7.15pm.

If you can be a bit early it sure helps.

A combination of DVDs and PowerPoint slides will be used